Irish Examiner

Himanshu Patel has been promoted to sales engineer with network and application performance management company Data Edge. He joined as an intern in 2019, and became a pre-sales engineer in 2020. He has also worked in customer service with the International Travel Network, and in sales with Bajaj Allianz Life Insurance. He holds a Master's Degree in Engineering Science in computer system from Riga Technical University, and a degree in Computer Science and Engineering from Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Technical Education & Research Centre.